

Guest Patroller Policy

Qualified guest patrollers are always welcomed. Guest privileges are not automatic. As a courtesy, please contact the Patrol Director at least two weeks in advance.

Guest patrollers will present to the Crew Chief his/her current NSP, OEC, and CPR cards. The information will be recorded in the sign in book each day. Please arrive at the Main Patrol Building (building to the left of rental) to meet with the Crew Chief.

Guest patrollers are expected to be on the hill by 8:45am ready to patrol, as well as assist with final sweep at hill closing. Guest patrollers, who arrive after 9:00am will be required to purchase their lift ticket.

Guest patrollers in uniform will be issued a guest ski pass for the day.

Guest patrollers are expected to assist with accidents.

Guest patrollers will carry a radio.

Guest patrollers that sign on for a minimum of three consecutive midweek days (non-holiday) will receive the additional benefits described below:

- A lift ticket for each day patrolling for the patroller
- One complimentary ticket voucher for each day patrolled
- Overnight lodging limited to the guest patroller(s) only (non-holiday)
- The lodging is limited to two guest patrollers for adequate shift (day/night) coverage
- Patrollers receiving lodging benefits are expected to lodge together.
- If patrolling a Wednesday -Thursday, Wednesday night patrolling is required. Guest patroller will receive a complimentary evening meal at the Ski Brule Main Lodge, up to $10 in value.
